Persons and organizations working in fields related to landscape architecture that wish to advise our members of their services can become an Affiliate of the BCSLA. Any individual, organization, institution, or business with an affiliation to the Principles and Practice of Landscape Architecture may apply as a BCSLA Affiliate and upon acceptance, will receive a listing on our websites (www.bcsla.org and www.sitelines.org). To refer to your company as a BCSLA Affiliate on your website, you must be a current BCSLA Affiliate, and must provide a link to the BCSLA websites.

Social Media - Facebook and Twitter

In addition, the BCSLA currently holds two active social media accounts: www.facebook.com/BCSocietyofLandscapeArchitects and www.twitter.com/#!/BCSLA. The purpose of these two social media accounts is to spread the awareness of the BCSLA and the Landscape Architecture profession to industry professionals and to the public.

Those who wish to submit material (images, events, videos, web-articles) which may be of interest to “Fans” and “Followers” of the BCSLA may send requests to office@bcsla.org, Re: Social Media. Please note that the BCSLA adheres to the Ten Principles of Privacy Protection which can be viewed at, www.bcsla.org/pdf.htm/privacy.pdf. Individuals who submit material are responsible for obtaining permission for use of photographs with photographers for publication and reproduction by the BCSLA. We will provide proper photography and other project credits when using photos, but will not assume responsibility for any copyrights or photography fees.

The BCSLA welcomes feedback and comments on information and links posted on BCSLA’s Facebook and Twitter accounts. Once posted, the BCSLA reserves the right to delete submissions which contain:

- Material which infringes on the rights of any third party, including intellectual property, privacy, or publicity rights.
- Material that is unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, abusive, slanderous, hateful, or embarrassing to any other person or entity as determined by the BCSLA in its sole discretion.
- Advertisements or solicitations of business.
- Chain letters or pyramid schemes, duplicate comments, or "spam".
- Comments which fail to conform with “BCSLA Terms of Use – Online”.

The BCSLA also reserves the right to delete any comments posted BCSLA's Facebook and Twitter accounts, regardless of whether such comments violate "BCSLA Terms of Use – Online".

Please note that the comments expressed on BCSLA's Facebook and Twitter accounts do not reflect the opinions and position of the BCSLA or its officers and employees. Finally, by commenting on and/or by submitting material to be posted on BCSLA's Facebook and Twitter accounts, you agree that you will indemnify the BCSLA against any damages, losses, liabilities, judgments, costs, or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) arising out of a claim by a third party relating to any material or comments submitted.

The BC Society of Landscape Architects (BCSLA) was formed in 1962 and registered in 1964 under the BC Societies Act. BCSLA regulates the profession of landscape architecture according to provincial statute. Landscape architecture is a comprehensive discipline involving land analysis, planning, design, management and conservation and rehabilitation. Typical projects include site design, urban planning, environmental impact studies, parks and recreation planning and residential garden design. The BCSLA promotes continuing education and high standards of professional practice in order to assure the health, safety, and welfare of the public in British Columbia.
