

BCSLA DRAWING ON THE LAND EXHIBITION 2e CALL FOR JURORS

The British Columbia Society of Landscape Architects (BCSLA) proudly presents the BCSLA Drawing on the Land: Contemporary Landscape Architecture Exhibition. This year's exhibition focuses on "in-process drawings" created by BCSLA Registered Landscape Architects, Landscape Architects, Interns and Students.

Jurors must be able to review without bias and have demonstrated strengths in landscape architecture, architecture, graphic design and photography. Prior experience in adjudication and critiquing design, student projects, CSLA or public art is preferred.

The BCSLA Drawing on the Land Exhibition Jury will be comprised of seven Members:

- 1) Alexandre Man-Bourdon, Drawing on the Land Sub-Committee Co-chair
- 2) Jordan McAuley, Drawing on the Land Sub-Committee Co-chair
- 3) Stephen Vincent, BCSLA P&PR Committee Chair

The Board of Directors will appoint the remaining Jurors from a selection of nominees. If you would like to serve as a Juror or want to nominate a Member, please submit candidate names by Friday, March 16 2018. There is one opening for each of the following positions:

- 4) An individual with an art background (e.g. Emily Carr University representative)
- 5) A BCSLA Registered Landscape Architect
- 6) A BCSLA Registered Landscape Architect
- 7) A BCSLA Student

The Chairperson will report directly to the BCSLA Board of Directors.

Please see reverse for application form.
