

BCSLA AFFILIATE APPLICATION

NOTE: The information below applies to British Columbia only.

The British Columbia Society of Landscape Architects (BCSLA) is a professional organization whose members are registered Landscape Architects, licensed to practice in British Columbia. The Society was established by the enactment of the Architects (Landscape) Act in 1968 as a self-governing professional organization whose objectives include the furtherance and maintenance of proper standards of professional practice.

BCSLA Affiliate: Any individual, organization, institution, or business with an affiliation to the Principles and Practice of Landscape Architecture may apply for recognition as an Affiliate of the Society. Persons and organizations working in fields related to Landscape Architecture that wish to advise our Members of their services can become an Affiliate of the BCSLA. BCSLA Affiliates must not be any individual, organization, institution or business who provides services similar to that of a Landscape Architect. As BCSLA Affiliates are not bound by the Principles and Standards of the Society, applications will be thoroughly reviewed before acceptance to ensure that there is no possibility for confusion with services provided by BCSLA Members. Please see the BCSLA Affiliate Policy for complete details.

Upon acceptance by the Board of Directors and payment of all fees when due, such individuals are entitled to use the designation “BCSLA Affiliate,” receive all general communications of the Society, attend general meetings as a non-voting Affiliate, and attend continuing education programs and sessions at BCSLA rates. When referring to your company as a “BCSLA Affiliate” on your website, you must also provide link to the BCSLA website (www.bcsla.org). A complete copy of the Bylaws is available at <https://www.bcsla.org/profession/bylaws-standards>
