

Examiner Biography

Susan Herrington - UBC Faculty of Applied Science

Susan Herrington is a Professor in the landscape architecture program at the UBC School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture. She regularly teaches histories and theories in landscape architecture, and SALA design studios. She was the chair of the Landscape Architecture program at SALA from 2016 to 2020. Susan is a landscape architect in Canada and member of the BCSLA/CSLA. She served on the BCSLA Board of Directors from 2016 to 2020, and she served on the BCSLA Board of Examiners from 2018 to 2023. Susan is also a licensed landscape architect in the United States. She consults professionally in Canada, the US, and Norway. Her writings and lectures examine the spatial and material practices of landscape architects from Cornelia Hahn Oberlander (1921-2021) to Claude Cormier (1960-2023), to numerous other practitioners from around the world. Susan has also conducted extensive research on children's landscapes.
