

BCSLA Volunteer Public Service Award Nomination Form

The BCSLA Board of Directors would like to recognize Members who have selflessly dedicated their time and expertise to making the world (at any scale) a better place to be, for the public or common good. This volunteer service must occur outside of working hours and outside of service to the BCSLA. Examples include long-standing service (>5 years) on Heritage Commissions, Planning Commissions/Committees, Arts Councils, Advisory Design Panels, provincial agencies or commissions, and environmental NGOs; as well as a Member that has been elected to public office at any level of government.
