

HORTICULTURALIST

Paul Sangha Landscape Architecture is looking for a full-time experienced horticulturalist to join our design team and current horticulturalist. The Firm specializes in high quality residential and resort landscape designs with special attention to design, service and quality. To learn more about our team, please visit our website at www.paulsangha.com

Required skill set:

- A degree, diploma or certificate in horticulture or related field
- A minimum of 3 years experience working in the field of horticulture in a managerial role
- Exceptional design skills with a portfolio of previous work
- Keen interest in learning and exploring new ideas
- Design adaptability in working locally and abroad, forging relationships and gathering information
- Focused, well organized and detail oriented
- Strong communication skills
- A passionate plants person with knowledge of local nurseries, suppliers and plants
- A team player that enjoys feedback to create an exceptional product
- An independent worker that can multitask and work well under pressure
- Outgoing personality that is positive and professional
- Drafting skills
- Knowledge of Microsoft office
- Driver's license
- Ability to read architectural drawings

Additional assets include:

- Knowledge of Mac computers, Vectorworks, Sketch Up and InDesign
- Horticultural knowledge or experience applicable to other regions and climates
- Knowledge of resilient and regenerative soil, agricultural and landscape/plant maintenance practices

This position includes but is not limited to the following duties:

- Source trees and plants
- Design and implementation of detailed planting plans
- Client liaison
- Identification of pests and disease, or other concerns in existing gardens
- Creation of maintenance schedules for existing gardens
- Introduction of new and exciting ideas and plants into each design
- Work with growers, nurseries, suppliers and contractors
- Site visits for tree and plant placement

Qualified individuals should send their resumes, cover letters and portfolios to:
info@paulsangha.com

* No phone calls please. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview.